Who We Are

Cemetery Gardening Angels planted their first garden in the spring of 2002. Lynda Bradshaw and Suzy Hastings the founders of the business have been friends and co-workers since 1969. They both retired from corporate business in 2001, giving the opportunity to create Cemetery Gardening Angels.

With the business growing rapidly from the beginning they decided to hire additional “angels” to assist with watering, weeding, pruning and trimming. A close partnership with Brain Injury Community Re-entry (Niagara) Inc. began and has continued to build a strong business that provides employment opportunities for individuals with an acquired brain injury.

As of the 2014 season Cemetery Gardening Angels will be owned and operated by BICR. Suzy Hasting will continue to mentor, share and teach all the responsibilities and commitments needed to manage and build a successful business. The employees of Cemetery Gardening Angels will continue to be individuals with acquired brain injuries and their support staff working together, using their skills, strong work ethics and passions to continue to provide the highest level of service possible.
